Who can register for Workforce Development Noncredit classes?

Advertised Workforce Development Noncredit classes are open to the general public. Some classes/programs may require prerequisites or a minimum or maximum age to participate. These requirements are included in the class description.

When can I register for a Workforce Development Noncredit class?

When a Workforce Development Noncredit class is advertised, registration is open to the public. The deadline for registration is:

- (1) until the class start date, or
- (2) other published registration deadline, or
- (3) until the class reaches maximum capacity, whichever comes first.

It is the individual College department's choice whether to create waiting lists for classes.

It is recommended you register promptly for a Workforce Development Noncredit class. Many classes fill up early. By waiting too long, you also run the risk of a class being cancelled without your enrollment.

Do I have to pay now? By what method can I pay?

Unless otherwise specifically stated, all Workforce Development Noncredit tuition and related class fees are due at the time of registration. Payment may be in the form of HACC accepted credit cards, personal check, money order, or cash. Tuition may be billed to third party payers (student employer) with a formal written authorization to bill request.

Are there any discounts for residency or for senior citizens?

No discounts are available for residency or for senior citizens.

Do I have to pay the HACC admission fee to take a Workforce Development Noncredit class?

No, the admission fee is only for people interested in taking Credit classes. You do not need to complete a HACC admissions application for Workforce Development Noncredit classes. Simply register by one of the above methods.

Why do you need my DOB, home address, full name, and phone numbers?

All Workforce Development Noncredit class participants are entered in our system as HACC students. Every class you take at HACC will appear on your official transcript. It is very important that we do not duplicate IDs. We need all your personal identification in order to thoroughly search 50+ years of records. Your confirmation letter will include your official HACC ID. This number, which begins with an "H", should be used to register for future HACC classes.

We mail a confirmation letter to every student and may need to contact you regarding a class change or cancellation. For this reason we need current address and phone numbers.

Where should I park?

Workforce Development Noncredit students may park in any HACC public parking lot. A parking pass is not required. However, please do not park in restricted parking areas (handicapped, etc.) without proper authorization.

Do I need an ID card?

Most Workforce Development Noncredit students do not need, nor receive, a HACC ID card. It is recommended that students carry valid ID (ie, driver's license) while attending class.

Where is my class held?

Upon registration, you will be given a confirmation letter which lists the class title, dates, times, instructor, and location. Please look over this confirmation letter and contact HACC Workforce Development staff if you need clarification. It is recommended that you check the campus map for your classroom location before you arrive at the campus, especially after hours, since there may be limited staff on hand to assist you. Some classes are held off-campus. In this case, you will be provided with a street address of the location on the confirmation letter. Please note: Your confirmation letter lists ALL Workforce Development Noncredit classes (past, current, future) you register for during the current fiscal year (July 1-June 30).

What about books for Workforce Development Noncredit classes?

In some cases, books are included in the tuition and provided at the first class. If books are to be purchased separately, the title and ISBN will be indicated on the confirmation letter and they will be available at HACC Bookstores.

Will I get a refund if the class cancels or if I drop out?

If HACC cancels a course, training, seminar, conference or trip/tour, all paid participants will receive a 100% refund of all tuition and fees. Any student who wishes to drop a course may do so by visiting or calling any of the campus Welcome Centers. These requests must be made no less than (3) business days prior to the first class meeting date to be eligible for a full refund of tuition and fees, except for any tuition or fees noted as nonrefundable.

Unless otherwise specifically stated or approved, no refund will be issued after a class start date. We do not issue partial refunds in the event a student starts a class late or does not complete the class. Students receiving Title IV Financial Aid will be subject to the federal regulations regarding withdrawal of classes. Financial Aid eligibility will be recalculated based on dates of participation in financial aid eligible programs.

Why would a class be canceled?

All classes have a maximum enrollment limit beyond which no additional students may be added and a minimum class size that must be reached before a class will be taught. These limits vary depending upon the nature of the class and the available instructional space. If the minimum class size is not reached, the class will be cancelled. If a class is cancelled, it is typically done so two to three business days before the class start date. It is important that interested parties register before that time.

A class may be cancelled due to a situation with an instructor or class location. Every effort will be made to reschedule the class in this circumstance. Students will be promptly contacted as soon as a problem becomes apparent.

A class may be canceled or delayed due to inclement weather or other unforeseen circumstances.

HACC reserves the right to add or delete a course, change times, location, fees, or instructors at its discretion.

We make every effort to contact a student when a class is cancelled or changed. It is important that you provide us with current phone numbers and/or e-mail addresses. We will leave phone messages if we cannot reach the student.

Can I use the gym, check out books from the library, or use the computer lab?

Only Workforce Development Noncredit students participating in sports/fitness classes may use the gym and only during their scheduled class time. Students must sign in at the gym's front desk before their class.

The computer lab is not open to Workforce Development Noncredit students.

A Workforce Development Noncredit student may use the HACC library, but currently cannot check out books.

The usage fee for these above facilities is included in Credit student tuition; Workforce Development Noncredit students are not charged this fee.

Why are some classes offered at one campus and not another?

Local interest, qualified instructor availability, and/or appropriate class location availability may all be factors as to why classes are held at particular locations instead of others. We are continually investigating new ideas and locales for classes. We appreciate any feedback or ideas you may have. You can e-mail such ideas to: wedinfo@hacc.edu.
