FROM THE DESK OF THE CAMPUS V.P.:

As the College looks ahead to the next year and beyond, there are several issues we must address if we are to continue to be successful and provide quality educational experiences for students. In late February a Summary of Reorganization Satisfaction Survey Results was shared by the College Reorganization Adhoc Committee. On March 22 a College-wide Town hall meeting is called to address this summary and discuss the survey results. I encourage each of you to attend if your schedule permits. The changes felt by the reorganization are beyond just operations and reacting to multiple locations. Indeed, the focus is on structuring the College to deal actively with an increasingly competitive future. Change is here and we need to prepare how we will respond.

As an example of the type of changes we are dealing with consider what is ahead just next year. We will see the implementation of the new Constitution of Faculty Organization. It sounds very simple to bring this together and make it happen -- it is not. Congratulations to Pam Watkins, Associate Professor of Mathematics who lead the reformatting of this venture.

We also have the budget to consider. Over the next few weeks and months we will consider what are the implications for reductions from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. As I have more information I will share about the progress we make to continue to provide innovative and rewarding programs and services.

The third initiative is the Scholarship campaign for the Lancaster campus. It has the potential -- over time -- to become a significant resource for HACC Lancaster students. Our goal is to raise one million dollars for student scholarships. But this can only be accomplished if we develop it carefully.

Lastly, we will welcome a new president to HACC in early July with the arrival of Dr. John J. "Ski" Sygielski.

All of these changes come into an organization that is feeling the stress of "much success". Clearly we are ahead of projections for enrollment and forecast shifts in overall enrollment. Our challenge is to retain a structure that provides stability, comfort, and context to our work here at HACC while, at the same time, changing to address a different environment. The change is now constant and will never be finished. Some will face the decision of wanting to be involved with an institution like HACC, while others will relish the challenge and adapt quickly.

At the core is the fact that it is not what we want to do for ourselves that counts, but what must be done to develop the College to serve the students and communities who need us.

Please remember that times change and organizations must change or face an uncertain and diminished future. I appreciate everyone's efforts as we face these challenging times with courage and open communication pressing forward to positively impact our communities. Come share your concerns or insights you may have as we continue to face the change ahead.

DR. WASHINGTON CONT.:

Huge Success for Staff Development Day

Staff Development Day for over 110 HACC Lancaster campus' classified staff members, faculty, administrators, and other professionals was a success. Thank you to all individuals that participated in the daylong event during mid-term break Wednesday, March 9, 2011 and for making it a huge success. The programs, facilities, food and most of all you, the participants, were wonderful. Your enthusiasm made my day and putting the lessons that we learned into practice will make my year.

While I believe that our staff development day was a success, the true test will come weeks and months from now when we look back and say, yes, our campus and college is a better place because of what we put into practice and experienced on that day. I encourage each of you to re-read the handouts and reflect on your DISC profile. Display your name plate with your DISC profile in your work area or office. Continue to share with colleagues over lunch or during breaks issues surrounding the topics of change and civility. Share a light moment or an opportunity for laughter with a co-worker. I also request supervisors to incorporate discussions about the topics that were presented into your department meetings. Joe Zanghi, Campus Director of Human Resources has agreed to be available to any employee or department that would like to expand our March 9th learning experience.

We will soon begin planning for our Fall Semester staff development day. Please feel free to discuss any ideas that you might have for that day with Joe Zanghi.

Community College Lobby Day at the Pennsylvania Capitol

Please help spread the word to our students regarding Community College Lobby Day scheduled for Tuesday, April 5, 2011. HACC Students are invited to participate in this political event to lobby their State Senators and State Representatives. The event will include a Press Conference and Rally in the Capitol Rotunda. The detailed schedule of the day is provided. Interested students must fill out and submit a Lobby Day Registration Form by Friday, March 25 to the Warren Bair, Coordinator of Student Life RM105C.

Schedule for the Day

8:30 AM	Students requiring transportation assemble in Cooper Student Center Lobby
8:45 AM	Free shuttle bus service from HACC-Harrisburg, Cooper Student Center
9:00 AM	Shuttle bus stops at HACC-Midtown. (Park free with HACC ID)
9:15 AM	Arrive Capitol East Wing (you may travel independently to the Capitol)
9:30 AM	Briefing of students on the day's activities
9:50 AM	Assemble on Rotunda Steps for Press Conference and Rally
10:00 AM	Community College Press Conference and Rally
11:00 AM – 12:30 PM	Students in pairs visit their Senators and Representatives
12:30 PM – 1:30 PM	Free lunch available for students (location TBD)
1:30 PM	Shuttle bus returns service from East Wing Fountain to Midtown+ Cooper.

While HACC encourages students to participate, please remember students must adhere to instructors' attendance policy; ultimately their attendance policy is what students must follow, and are responsible for any missed work.

If you have questions, contact Warren Bair. Thank you for your interest in the political process and in being an advocate for HACC!

To the Nursing Department

The Nursing Department is pleased to announce a highly successful accreditation visit from the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission. It is the recommendation of the visiting NLNAC team that the HACC Nursing Associate Degree and Practical Nursing programs receive full re-accreditation for the maximum period allowed which is 8 years. The accreditation team cited many strengths of the program including the strong curriculum, excellent faculty, administrative support, outstanding resources, use of technology in the classroom and availability of international education. We have a program to be proud of which is reflected in high passage rates of our graduates on the State Board of Nursing exam, positive graduate satisfaction surveys and employer feedback.

Thank you to everyone who helped prepare for this accreditation visit and the hard work that is done every day on this campus to support our students. The next scheduled evaluation will be in 2019.

Ditto to the Rad Tech Program

Radiologic Technology Program News

The Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT) recently evaluated the HACC Lancaster Campus Radiologic Technology Program. The continuing accreditation status of the program was considered and the JRCERT awarded an Accreditation for a period of eight years. This is the maximum duration that may be awarded by the JRCERT. If the accreditation award is maintained, the next scheduled site visit is tentatively scheduled for the Third Quarter of 2018.

Financial Aid Night

The Financial Aid night was a huge success? We had approximately 70 students and parents attend and the comments from everyone were quite positive. Also, two Financial Aid staff volunteered for the FAFSA completion days held at McCaskey high school in February and March. Betty Espenshade and Deb Young met with McCaskey students and parents to assist them in preparing their financial aid application for the upcoming year.

HR NEWS:

FIRST STAFF DEVELOPMENT DAY A SUCCESS

Personality profiles, civility, laughter therapy, dealing with change and the state of our campus are just some of the topics discussed during our first day long, campus wide, staff development day. Dr. Washington hosted the event using a unique style of humor, candor and insight that effectively put the day's topics into perspective. Over 100 participants listened, laughed and shared simultaneous aha moments as Denis Heinle, from HACC Central and Dr. Rod Bartell explained how to interpret our DISC profiles. We then disbursed into small groups to discuss the meaning of civility, with an emphasis on the impact of civil and uncivil behavior on our campus. After sharing our small group insights, we adjourned to Footnotes Café for lunch.

Following lunch, Dr. Washington humorously drew from Robert Fulghum's best seller All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten to poignantly bring our discussions on civility into perspective. As the afternoon progressed, we experienced what we would all look like with clown noses as Elaine Boltz, from Life Management Associates, led us in an hour of fun filled exercises that demonstrated how laughter can help us get a healthy grip on even the most stressful days. Following Elaine, Dave Wauls, also from LMA, kept us laughing as he provided insight into how to successfully deal with change.

In closing, Dr. Washington implored us to keep a balanced life. Family comes first, he said, and civility should be practiced wherever we go. He challenged us to incorporate the lessons learned on that day into our lives at work, at home and in the community.

CAMPUS NEWS:

Jeff Ihlenfeldt's short story "The Red Hills" will appear in an upcoming issue of Solstice, a quarterly online journal featuring original works of fiction, nonfiction, poetry. "The Red Hills" is part of Jeff's collection of southwestern stories in progress, Sonora.

My poem, "Fantasies," will be published on the e-zine, The Nervous Breakdown, at <http://www.thenervousbreakdown.com/>, starting April 13th.

'From Her Body' features cyanotype on fiber and bronze sculpture at HACC-Lancaster Campus art show

LANCASTER – Opposites come together March 1-April 14 at the Art Space in the East Building of the HACC-Lancaster Campus, 1641 Old Philadelphia Pike. "From Her Body" features cyanotype on fiber and the bronze sculptures by Judith Johnson, adjunct humanities instructor for HACC's Lancaster and Virtual campuses and coordinator of the Art Space.

From Thaddeus Sampson, Dean

I am extremely pleased to inform you of our Alpha Nu Omega Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society's accomplishments this past weekend at the 24th Phi Theta Kappa Middle States Regional Convention held in Long Branch, New Jersey.

Michael Shoemaker, our chapter's current vice president of programs, was elected the 2011-2012 Middle States Regional President. The Middle States Region comprises the states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, and Delaware. Needless to say, we are extremely proud of Michael for achieving this significant leadership position. I am confident that he will serve himself, the region, and I personally thank Prof. Jennifer St. Pierre, Phi Theta Kappa Lancaster Campus Chapter Advisor, and Lancaster Campus students and administration for their support of Michael and indeed all of our chapter's activities. Michael is a Lancaster Campus student.

Michael also received the Hall of Honor Chapter Officer Award.

Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) Updates

The three BIT trainings that were held on February 9 and 10 were well attended and generated great discussion. For those who were unable to attend, detailed BIT information and the reporting form can be found on the HACC web site at www.hacc.edu, under "Quick Links" choose "Behavioral Intervention".

Several good suggestions made during the sessions that the committee is moving forward with, including putting a scenario periodically in the college Newsbulletin and making counselor contact information for each division readily available in each faculty bay. The BIT team is here to serve as a resource for you. Please feel free to contact me at x2974 or jabareut@hacc.edu with any questions.

Thank you,
Jackie Bareuther
Campus BIT Chair

Faculty Organization Elections – Lancaster Campus Representatives

A new era of the Faculty Organization is beginning...one that recognizes the role of the individual campuses in the governance structure. This is what we, faculty on the Lancaster Campus, have been pushing for. Now it is time for us to step up and represent the Lancaster Campus on the college level. The new Faculty Senate structure requires 6 Lancaster campus faculty representatives, one of whom must be an adjunct, to serve in the Operations House of the Faculty Senate. The Operations House meets on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of each month, between 2:00 – 5:00 pm. The work of the Operations House replaces the work of FPPC, and parts of both PG&D and APSA...basically, all the non-academic issues. Please, when the call for nominations goes out, nominate yourself or a willing colleague to serve in the Operations House as a Lancaster Campus representative. You have just been tapped for service.

SAVE THE DATE:

The HACC Lancaster Campus D&E Library Book Group will be meeting on Wednesday March 23rd from 1:00-2:00 in the Library Legal Room, 226N. Want to join the book group but not sure you have time? This semester we are reading short stories!

On 3/23 we will be discussing the short story Half Beat by one of HACC Lancaster's own faculty, Elizabeth Gonzalez! Light refreshments will be served and Ms. Gonzalez will also be joining us as a special guest! Half Beat is available in The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2010. Check out your copy at the library today.

ADJUNCT OF THE MONTH:

Priscilla Wilczak - Math Adjunct

I was born in Buffalo, New York and moved to Lancaster in 1991 from Kansas City, MO. I began teaching as a Math Adjunct in the spring of 1992 at the campus on New Holland Ave. I have seen the college grow in the size of its facilities, student body and faculty. I enjoy working with the varied student population and find the faculty to be friendly, helpful and caring. Of all the places I have taught in western New York, Chicago, and Kansas City I would rate it as my favorite place to work.

My husband Paul and I have three adult children. Our son Sean and daughter-in-law Janice along with 4 grandchildren live in Kansas City, and we try to visit them in the summer. While there we also reconnect with friends and visit some of our favorite places in the area. Our daughters Kimberly, currently back at school for her Masters, and Sara grew up in Lancaster and live in the area along with our granddaughter Natile.

When I'm not teaching I enjoy cooking, reading, knitting, doing cross stitch, Sudoku puzzles and weather permitting working in my flower and vegetable gardens. My husband and I like to vacation at two of our favorite places - the shore in Avalon, NJ where we can relax and walk on the beach and Williamsburg, VA where we also do a lot of walking.

Barbara Crellin - English Adjunct

I grew up in Campden, New Jersey. I began teaching English for Hacc at Burle and have continued teaching through the move to this campus. I have watched Hacc grow and become more diverse.

My undergraduate degree was received from the University of Delaware in biology and math. I went back to school when I was 45 and received my Master's degree in English when I was 55. I have worked as a bookkeeper, secretary, nursery school teacher, and math teacher before coming to Hacc.

I live in Christiana, next to the creek. My husband and I have four children, three girls and one son, eleven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. We have been married for 48 years.

I love the beach and have a house in Cape May Point. I have worked at Jeanne Hermann's (Hacc's former librarian) antique shop and enjoy spending time with my family. In my spare time I enjoy yoga, cross stitch, reading, playing with my dog and cat and beating Mr. Crellin at rummy.

I love Longwood Gardens, the ocean and babies.

LANCASTER SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE:

The Lancaster Scholarship Committee with David Carl has a goal to raise 1 million dollars in scholarships for our Lancaster Campus students. Diane Mauro and Lois Schaffer are organizing a basket auction for April 5, 6, and 7 to coincide with the kick off to this fundraiser.

We are asking that each bay/office area at the Lancaster campus come up with a theme and create a basket with donations from members of your bay/office to be auctioned off on those days.

Please appoint a volunteer leader to collect the donations and send Diane Mauro and Lois Schaffer this individual's name so that we can stay in touch as we move forward with our deadline date of March 28, 2011.

Dr. Washington has a personal donation of dinner for 6. He will make a meal for you and 5 of your guests in your home between May and August. He will provide everything and consult with you on the meal.

Thank you for your continued support of the Lancaster Campus and our students.

Lancaster Scholarship Committee

The Lancaster Faculty Scholarship Committee is seeking your support in announcing to your students information regarding the LFA Faculty Scholarship. As you know each year we select one successful candidate for our award. Information for students regarding this scholarship is posted in the financial aid section of the HACC website. Application and supporting data must be submitted by April 1, 2011. Notification of scholarship status will be issued by June 2011. The award we are offering this year is $330.00. Please see below for specifics and pass this information along to any student who you would be willing to recommend. As always we appreciate and value your support.

To be considered a candidate for the application the student must meet the following criteria.

- The student will complete and submit the LFA Scholarship Application.
- The student must be enrolled at the Lancaster Campus.
- Student must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 with a completion of at least 12 college level credits at HACC.

Sincerely,
Pam Pacana and Lancaster Faculty Scholarship Committee

READINGS OF POETRY AND SHORT FICTION:

The Faculty of the English Department of the Lancaster Campus will present readings of poetry and short fiction by four HACC faculty members on Monday, April 4, 2011 from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. in Main 222. The public is invited and refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Jeff Ihlenfeldt at 358-2922.

Mike Essig is a poet and essayist. He was born in Massachusetts and raised in Pennsylvania. He shoplifted his first book of poetry (Gary Snyder's The Backcountry) at 17 thus beginning his literary career early and cheap. After a few years of hippie blur, he was drafted and became a flight medic flying 246 combat medevac missions in Laos and Vietnam. Post military, just happy to be alive, he got an undergraduate degree from Penn State, but got his real education at Kent State where he studied Modernism. Since then he has been a teacher, a farm hand, a factory worker, a gardener, a landscaper, a technical recruiter and salesman in no particular order. He writes on common themes: life, death, sex, war and nature. He has been published in a number of magazines and was recently included in the annual anthology of Modern Literary Horizons. He likes cats, bourbon and women. Currently he lives nowhere in Mechanicsbug. He has published many poetry blogs, the last of which was Negative Capability (<http://mceaphorismus.blogspot.com/>) and will be beginning a new one very soon.

Elizabeth Gonzalez (left) is a freelance writer living in Lancaster, PA. Her stories appear in Sycamore Review, Greensboro Review, Post Road, Wag's Revue, Pear Noir! and Best American Nonrequired Reading 2010.

Patty Hanahoe-Dosch's poems have appeared in various literary magazines, such as The San Pedro Poetry Review, Confrontation, Abalone Moon, The Paterson Literary Review, Nervous Breakdown, Switched-on Gutenberg, The Poetry Super Highway and Without Halos, among others. She has an MFA in creative writing from The University of Arizona and is an Associate Professor of English at the Lancaster campus of HACC, where she teaches writing, journalism and literature. If you are interested in reading some of her work, you can access some of her poems on the following sites:

Jeff Ihlenfeldt's short stories have appeared in numerous journals and anthologies, including Southern Humanities Review, Columbia Review, Louisville Review, and Adirondack Review. Recently named as a finalist for The Fulton Prize for Short Fiction, he has been a featured author at the Lancaster Book Festival and the Greater Reading Literary Festival, and has been a writer-in-residence at Ledig House International Writer's Colony, The Artists' Enclave at I-Park, and Artcroft Center for Arts and Humanities. He is Associate Professor in English at the Lancaster Campus of HACC, where he teaches writing and literature.

An Update from the D & E Learning Center

Fall was busy in Tutoring Services! Throughout the fall, tutors provided 5630 tutorial hours to 991 students. That equals a 30% increase in tutoring hours and a 26% increase in the number of students served from the previous fall. Twenty-nine tutors supported over 50 courses. By subject area the most tutored courses were math (43%), English (32%), accounting (6%), chemistry (5%), and biology (4%). Students once again reported complete satisfaction (strongly agree) with tutoring services -- including "tutors are friendly and helpful," "My tutor was attentive, helpful and respectful," "My tutoring experience was beneficial to me," and "I would recommend the Learning Center to other students." Sixty-five percent of our customers returned for repeat visits!

Preliminary results from our ongoing Institutional Research college-wide assessment are also super positive. Students reported high satisfaction with tutoring services and tutors. They were "able to obtain the help that they were seeking" (96%), and they "understood the course material better after their session" (94%). They overwhelmingly agreed with factors regarding tutors: respectful (97%), attentive (96%), patient (95%), and knowledgeable (95%). Students reported feeling "comfortable asking questions (95%). Nearly all (97%) stated they would "recommend the Learning Center to other students." Eighty-eight percent of surveyed students said they "performed better on exams" and 91% said they "gained skills (they) can use in other classes."

Do your students need tutoring this Spring? Students can drop in (no appointments needed) to get help with a variety of courses from trained tutors. Tutoring hours are offered seven days a week! Students can check out the weekly schedule online by going to www.hacc.edu and clicking on the Lancaster Campus (upper right), Tutoring (lower left), and the Lancaster Tutoring Schedule.

Encourage your students to visit the Learning Center. It's here, it's free, and it works!

Test Center News: Starting this Spring, students no longer need appointments to make up a test in the Test Center. Make-up testing will be offered on a walk-in basis (but students still need appointments for placement testing, computerized virtual campus testing, and CLEP testing). After a student contacts you and you approve a make-up exam, remind your student to complete his/her test by your set expiration date. We will post our testing schedule and any schedule changes online, in the learning center, and on the learning center bulletin board. It will be the student's responsibility to know the test center hours.

NEW SPRING TESTING HOURS:

Mondays : 9:00am – 5:00pm
Tuesdays – Thursdays: 9:00am – 8:00pm
Fridays: 9:00am – 4:00pm
Select Saturdays only

RIISING STARS AWARD CERIMONY:

The Lancaster Campus recognized our Rising and Shooting Stars at a ceremony held on February 17 in the Footnotes Café. These are students who have successfully completed either English 001 or 002 and met the award criteria. Forty-seven students qualified to be Rising Stars for the Fall 2010 semester, and there were eleven Shooting Stars.

The Footnotes Café atrium was filled with our students, their families and friends, and HACC faculty/staff, in celebration of the students' academic accomplishments. The number of attendees was our largest yet!

I want to acknowledge the following people for their contributions:

The Rising Stars Planning Committee: Irma Alicia Villarreal, Jennifer Alleman, Lisa Herr, Lori Corradino, Chris Raczka

The Rising Stars Ceremony Program Presenters: Jackie Bareuther, Jennifer Alleman, Lori Fair, Lisa Herr, Lori Corradino, Hong Lam, Susan Herr

Jason Stetler: For accommodating our special requests

Facilities: For room arrangements including set up/tear down

Cindy Lucarelli: For printing our certificates

Chris Raczka: For greeting our guests and managing all the details

Thanks!

A FITNESS CHALLENGE:

Leadership Team's Fitness Challenge

HACC's Fitness Challenge for the Spring, 2011 semester began February 27. Karen Imhof, our campus coordinator for the event, asked men on the campus to participate as there were only women participants in the Fall, 2010 challenge.

The Lancaster Campus' Leadership Team took the challenge one step further. With a little nudge, all members of the Lancaster's Leadership Team are participating in the program. Varied methods of exercise are being used by the team including walking, running, bicycling, yoga and zumba dancing. Many of us aren't using a gym, we're exercising at HACC on our lunch hours or at our homes. We want all campus participants to know that we're with you in your efforts to improve your health and fitness.

If you aren't participating this semester, consider joining us when registration opens for the Fall, 2011 challenge.

THE WELLNESS COMMITTEE:

- Lancaster Campus has 32 participants in the Spring Fitness Challenge including 10 men
- Zumba classes are being held on Wednesdays
- Health/Wellness Fair on April 27 - 10 - 2
- Fitness Challenge Reception will culminate the Spring Fitness Challenge - April 28

The money you raise in March for Babies is used to fund important research and programs that help moms have full-term pregnancies and babies begin healthy lives. And it helps us provide information and support to families whose baby was born too soon, or sick.

To become a part of the Lancaster campus March for Babies Team or to financially support our team go to <http://www.marchforbabies.org/team/t1513755> or contact Karen Imhof at 358-2203 or kjimhof@hacc.edu for more information. The goal of the team is to raise a total of $3,025

Lancaster Campus Constituencies Advisory Committee

Lancaster Campus Constituencies Advisory Committee was formed to implement a mechanism to bring shared governance to Lancaster Campus. The purpose is to provide the V.P. of the campus with recommendations about the campus. The meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of each month. If you have any suggestion, recommendation or concern about Lancaster Campus, please discuss it with a member of LaCCAC. Your issue will then be submitted for action to the appropriate sub committee as listed below.
