GETTING TO THE CORE

Getting to the Core is an educational resource guide that connects the Live at Rose Lehrman Performing Artist Series to the core curriculum of HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College. Each page of this booklet lists:

- A performance
- Suggested classes that may have a potential connection

Interested faculty are encouraged to review the guide and consider building the artists' work into his or her syllabus. Examples include:

- Requiring students to attend the performance and then discussing the work in class or giving a writing assignment.
- Giving extra credit to students who attend the performance by having them write a response or provide documentation of his or her attendance.

It is our hope that by integrating the arts into your class, students will have a unique opportunity to learn the coursework from a different perspective, which can be engaging and fun.

FREE TICKETS

Faculty who require students to attend a performance are eligible for one complimentary ticket to attend the show. Simply email a copy of your syllabus to Susan Kirchdoerfer, box office manager of Live at Rose Lehrman Performing Artist Series, at sjkirchd@hacc.edu. She will make arrangements for your free ticket to be available at the box office for pick up the night of the performance.

SONS OF SERENDIP

TUESDAY, DEC. 3, 2019 | 7:30 P.M.

Sons of Serendip is a musical group of four friends who, through a series of serendipitous events, came together in graduate school at Boston University. Using their instrumentation of harp, piano, cello and voice to reimagine unique covers of other artists' work, they gained national attention as finalists on season nine of "America's Got Talent." Since that time, they have recorded six albums, including original work, and toured extensively.
